

Ms. Alexis Hawks

August 15, 1991 - September 14, 2018

Let not your heart be troubled; you believe in God, believe also in Me.

Lexis Shanee Hawks was born on August 15, 1991, to her loving Father, Russ Hawks and her beloved Mother, Julie Delk.

Alexis was a bright, intelligent young lady who loved fashion, modeling and cooking. She enjoyed playing tennis, loved calling NFL football plays, liked a variety of music and knew all of the latest movies. Alexis, Andrew and their father loved visiting family, watching football, playing video games and eating out.

Alexis and her mother loved spending time volunteering for the Food Banks and Salvation Army during Christmas time. Giving back to the community was dear to her heart.

Alexis was well educated and loved learning new things. She received many honors and spent her formative years in the Smithfield School System and continued her education at Thomas Nelson Community College and Ashworth College as she received academic honors in Business. Her dreams were that one day she would own her own business and home.

Alexis was creative and loved gourmet dishes, including seafood recipes that she prepared from scratch. She always enjoyed traveling with her father and brother to her Granny Elizabeth Hawks Baltimore and GrandPop Bishop Carroll A. Baltimore, Sr. in Fairfax, Virginia.

Alexis enjoyed dressing up, going to church and singing in the youth choir with her cousins. She had fun visiting her late paternal Great Grandmother, Evelyn T. Morrisette and also enjoyed cooking and going to church with her. Alexis enjoyed the time she spent with her maternal Grandmother, Louise Banks cooking and gaining family memories.

Alexis cherished the times she spent with both of these women of great wisdom.
