

Mr. George Franklin Sadler Sr.

April 28, 1950 - May 5, 2026

George Franklin Sadler, Sr., a man of unmatched wit and the undisputed master of sarcasm, passed away on May 5, 2026, at the age of 76. Born on April 28, 1950, George spent his life ensuring that no one around him took themselves too seriously.

He is now reunited with his beloved wife, Sharon Elizabeth Sadler (Horton), who preceded him in death. This year would have marked their 55th wedding anniversary, and while his family misses them both, they take comfort in knowing that George and Sharon will be celebrating that milestone together again this June. One can only imagine the clever greeting and sharp-witted commentary he had prepared for their long-awaited reunion.

George's life was defined by his incredible sense of humor. He had a rare gift for finding the comedy in any situation, and his dry, sometimes not-so-perfectly timed sarcasm was the hallmark of every family gathering. He wielded his wit with precision, always keeping everyone on their toes and ensuring there was never a dull moment.

He is survived by his three children: Stacey Elizabeth West (husband, Ottis), Karrieanne Keenan (husband, Scott), and George "JR" Franklin Sadler, Jr. (Fiancée, Nikki). George's legacy continues through his grandchildren: Stacey's children- Ottis West III (wife Teagan), Antonio West, Meisha Osario

(husband Alberto), Jordan West (wife Waleska); Karrieanne's children - Faith Curry (husband Hunter), Noah Ketterman and Jordyn Keenan; and JR's Children: Eden Atkins (Husband Evan) and George "Trey" Franklin Sader, III. He was also great-grandfather to: Stacey's grandchildren: Ava, Charlie, Ellie, Marley, Sofia, Selena, Siena, Olivia, Arlo, and Luca; Karrieanne's grandchildren: Braxton and Kane and JR's grandchild Everly.

George was a man of charm and humor, even if he often expressed it through a well-placed jab. He leaves behind a family that is better for his laughter and a little sharper for his influence.

“ My condolences to the family. I remember when I used to go to the family parties at Stacey's house George Sadler would always come. He was always bouncy talkative and always telling jokes. I'm sure that he will be missed. However, I will give credit to the wonderful daughter-in-law he gave us. Stacey is the best.
