“ You were my everything and I'll never in my life forget you and I'll do what you asked and tell my grandchildren all about you and remind them that you use to keep them when they were babies. Lady you left me but I understand although you told me you never would, but you're still in my heart. I understand it's not about me but all about God and His will for our lives. My heart aches for David because he wont understand where you're at. Love Always and forever your son, Barry Reginald Randall!
